God is Moving Mountains

Benin is a small country bordering western Nigeria. It is the birthplace of voodoo, and Christianity is viewed by many in the north as a threat to their traditional beliefs. Every village and many homes in the north have designated locations for the ritualistic killing of animals (and sometimes humans) in an attempt to appease demonic spirits. Voodoo is an official religion, and Voodoo Day is a public holiday. Witchcraft is deeply ingrained in the local culture and is openly practiced. Christianity is considered a foreign religion that steals a community's youth and prevents them from being properly initiated into the local tribes. Village chiefs serve as both political leaders and voodooist priests.

Persecution is prevalent in the north. New converts to Christianity are beaten and sometimes killed, while church buildings are routinely destroyed. Villages keep evangelists out and prevent construction of new churches.

Believers are persecuted by their family and community. Bibles are available, but they are hard to find in rural areas.

About 30 percent of the Beninese are Christians. Nearly 40 percent practice ethnic religions, and another 30 percent are Muslims.

How to Pray:

1. Pray for all who have lost families or homes because of their Christian faith.
2. Pray that many will flee voodooism and find freedom in Christ.
3. Pray for greater access to bibles, especially in rural areas.

Announcements

SUNDAY SCHOOL: Sunday School for youth and adults resumes today after our worship service.

FAITH FORMATION TIP: As one year ends and another begins, pause for a time of taking spiritual inventory with your family, friends, or on your own. Ask questions like these: Where did we see God this year? Where did we resist growth? Where do we feel God is calling us next? Consider writing a prayer of release and a prayer of commitment to guide your transition into the new year. Brought to you by Thrive: crcna.org/Thrive.
