God is Moving Mountains

Brunei is a Muslim-majority nation under the rule of a dynastic sultan and Islamic law. There are fewer than 20 registered churches in Brunei and few opportunities for Bruneians to hear the gospel. While oil wealth has ensured that few people lack in material needs, spiritual needs are great. Despite the risks, a few bold evangelists and missionaries continue to bring the light of the gospel to this dark land.

The government is the main persecutor of Christians. Islamic education is required for children. Bibles in Malay, the country's official language, are illegal and are confiscated if discovered. No bookstores in Brunei sell Bibles.

Almost 80 percent of Bruneians are Sunni Muslims, and nearly all of the 9 percent who are Christians are ethnically Chinese.

While some historic churches exist in Brunei, no new church buildings are allowed. Churches are often afraid to reach out to Muslims because they are monitored closely by the religious police. Even inviting a Muslim to a Christmas celebration would be problematic.

The penalty for evangelizing Muslims is a $15,000 fine, up to five years in prison or both. Nevertheless, several Bruneians have been baptized.

How to Pray:

1. Pray that Christian youth will receive discipleship at home and church.
2. Pray that Bruneian Christians will seize opportunities to share the gospel in their daily relationships.
3. Praise God for Bruneians who have come to faith in Christ despite harsh restrictions.
