God is Moving Mountains

In southwestern Asia, leaving Islam can be a death sentence. Converts are not simply killed—their homes may be burned, and if an entire family has converted, all may be executed. Because of this, Christians live quietly and cautiously.

Surveillance has increased dramatically, forcing believers to learn new ways to protect themselves. Many now read the Bible from hidden SD cards or carefully concealed paper copies. Economic pressure is severe: one income often supports twelve or more people, and finding work is extremely difficult.

Despite this, believers endure. Many choose apartment buildings over houses for safety. Families are large, marriages are delayed, and women face heavy restrictions. Yet amid fear and control, Christians stand out—marked by hope, dignity, and quiet courage.

How to Pray:

1. Pray for God to provide for the needs of his people enduring persecution, and for his presence to be felt.
2. Praise God for the Christians who are enduring persecution as their hope, dignity and quiet courage points others to God.
3. Pray for God to soften the hearts of people in SW Asia and draw them into a loving relationship with Himself.
