God is Moving Mountains

Kyrgyzstan is a remote mountainous nation with a nomadic tribal culture. It is also one of the poorest former Soviet states in Central Asia. A significant portion of the population has left to work elsewhere, and life in Kyrgyzstan is hard. After decades of Communist rule, most Kyrgyz have returned to their nation's pre-Communist Islamic cultural identity. In fact, 93 percent of Kyrgyz are Sunni Muslims. Only 4 percent of the population are Christians.

Christians are persecuted mostly by family members and their communities, including Muslim religious leaders. Secret police are also known to harass and interrogate believers suspected of evangelism.

Some churches worship openly, even in small towns, but being a Christian is difficult because of Islamic control. Christian converts are commonly beaten, and the small Christian minority is generally oppressed by society. For example, buses will not stop for those known as Christians in small communities, and believers have difficulty getting jobs and even purchasing goods. In some communities, Muslim leaders have denied the burial of deceased Christians.

How to Pray:

1. Pray that Christians harassed by the government and their communities will be faithful witnesses to their persecutors.
2. Pray that Christians will faithfully continue to gather for worship and fellowship despite restrictive laws.
3. Pray that Kyrgyz people working in other countries will learn about Christ and place their faith in him.
